HOUSE BILL NO. 229

BY WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE

1	AN ACT
2	RELATING TO PUBLIC ASSISTANCE LAW; AMENDING SECTION 56-211, IDAHO CODE, TO
3	PROVIDE ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS RELATING TO AN APPLICATION FOR CERTAIN
4	PUBLIC ASSISTANCE AND TO MAKE A TECHNICAL CORRECTION.

- 5 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:
- 6 SECTION 1. That Section 56-211, Idaho Code, be, and the same is hereby 7 amended to read as follows:
 - 56-211. APPLICATION FOR PUBLIC ASSISTANCE. (1) Application for public assistance under this act shall be made in the manner and form prescribed by the state department, and the application shall contain such informatin information bearing on the applicant's eligibility as the state department may require and as required in subsection (2) of this section.
 - (2) If an applicant seeks public assistance for which a determination of eligibility or amount is related to the number of dependent children of the applicant, then the applicant shall provide the state department a copy of the birth certificate, or proof of application for a birth certificate, for each dependent child the applicant claims on the application. Upon a showing of good cause by the applicant as to why a birth certificate for any such child has not been provided, the state department shall grant an extension and the applicant may receive the public assistance for which he or she has applied for one (1) month. Such showing of good cause shall be required each month the applicant fails to provide the state department a copy of the birth certificate. A showing of good cause shall be satisfied when the applicant provides documentation that he or she applied for, or made reasonable effort to obtain, a birth certificate and such application has not been timely processed by the issuing entity. Good cause is not shown where a delay in obtaining a birth certificate is due to illness, lack of transportation or temporary absences.
